

Brian A. Wolf

Partner

BRIAN A. WOLF is a partner in the Fort Lauderdale office of Smith, Currie & Hancock LLP. He is Board Certified in Construction Law by the Florida Bar and AV® Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell.

Brian's practice is concentrated in the defense and prosecution of complex construction and design claims involving both public and private projects. His practice includes all facets of construction law, including representation of contractors, design professionals, sureties, subcontractors, owners, material suppliers and others, in State and Federal Court, arbitration and mediation. Brian regularly litigates claims on a wide variety of projects, including mixed-use high rise buildings, airports, road and bridge construction, commercial and municipal buildings, schools, parking garages, condominiums, hotels, broadcast antenna towers, restaurants, and vessels. Brian is experienced in the preparation and negotiation of public and private construction and design contracts. Additionally, he is knowledgeable in all aspects of Florida surety and construction lien laws.

Brian is a contributing editor of Common Sense Construction Law and the author of Florida Lienlaw Online, Construction Publications, Inc. Brian is a frequent lecturer on construction law and has presented for several organizations including The Florida Bar, and The Associated Builders and Contractors.

Brian is chairman of the Construction Law Committee of the Florida Bar, Real Property Section, and past chairman of the Construction Law Committee of the Broward County Bar Association. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Associated Builders & Contractors, Florida East Coast Chapter. Brian sits on the State Board of Directors of the Associated Builders and Contractors, Florida. He maintains active memberships in the Associated Builders and Contractors, Construction Association of South Florida, South Florida Associated General Contractors of America, Construction Financial Managers Association South Florida, Engineering Contractors Association and Underground Contractors Association. During law school, he served as intern to Honorable Judge Elizabeth A. Kovachevich, United States District Court Middle District of Florida, and a teaching fellow at Stetson University College of Law, Trial Practice, Professor William Eleazar.
