Partner

HUBERT J. BELL, JR. Hugh is a partner of Smith, Currie & Hancock LLP. He is a graduate of Davidson College and Pacific Lutheran University. He received his law degree with honors in 1981 from the University of Georgia Law School where he was elected to membership in the Order of the Coif. He was an infantry officer and pilot in the United States Army from 1966 to 1978. He remained in the United States Army Reserve until 2002, serving on the Army General Staff in contracting-related assignments and is a Lieutenant Colonel, Retired.

Hugh has been admitted to the bars of Georgia, the District of Columbia and Florida. He has been admitted to practice in many state and federal courts as well as the United States Supreme Court.

Hugh has published papers and book chapters concerning contracting issues and has spoken at many seminars and programs. He has served in various positions for the Section of Public Contract Law of the American Bar Association, including Chairman of its Committee on Dispute Resolution, and of its Construction Division for three years. Hugh was a member of the Section Council from 1997 to 2006. He then successively was Vice Chair and Chair-Elect, becoming Chair of the Section in August 2003. He is also a member of the ABA's Forum Committee on the Construction Industry and Sections of Litigation and Alternative Dispute Resolution. Hugh was President of the Atlanta Chapter of the National Contract Management Association and a National Director.

He has been designated by his peers as a Georgia Super Lawyer for 2004, 2007, and 2008. He was selected as one of 20 construction lawyers in Georgia to be included in The International Who's Who of Business Lawyers for 2006 and one of 26 construction lawyers in Georgia for the 2007 edition. Hugh was appointed to the Disciplinary Board of the State Bar of Georgia in 2005. He was Chair of the Investigative Panel of the Board in 2008-2009.

He is a member of the American Arbitration Association's National Construction and Commercial Panel of Neutrals and of the AAA National Panel of Construction Mediators. He was appointed by the AAA president to the national Task Force on the Construction Industry in 1994 and currently is a member of the AAA National Construction Dispute Resolution Committee. He has had arbitrator training by the AAA and has been an instructor in AAA arbitrator training courses. Hugh was trained as a mediator in 1997 and completed additional mediation training at the Straus Institute of Pepperdine University Law School in 2004. He is an active arbitrator and mediator of commercial, government contract, and construction disputes. He is a
