

Honors & Recognition

- Chambers USA 2010 Edition Lists 10 Smith, Currie & Hancock Attorneys. Click here to see the complete list of our ranked attorneys.
- The Best Lawyers in America 2010 Edition Includes 11 Smith, Currie & Hancock Attorneys. Smith, Currie & Hancock also received a national first-tier ranking in Construction Law. Click here to see the complete list of our ranked attorneys.
- Super Lawyers has released its list of outstanding attorneys for 2010 and 16 Smith, Currie & Hancock attorneys have been named. Click here to see the list of our attorneys.
- The Legal 500 US 2010 Edition lists Smith, Currie & Hancock among the leading US law firms and notes its lawyers in the area of Construction Law.
- Thomas J. Kelleher, Jr., received the "President's Coin Award" from the Associated General Contractors of America for extraordinary service to the Association and the construction industry. Click here to view a picture of Tom receiving the National AGC President's Award at this year's Convention.
- Robert J. Greene has been appointed to the Carolinas AGC Board of Directors.
- Philip E. Beck was named Vice Chair of the AGC Contract Documents Committee.
- Dirk D. Haire has been appointed to the AGC of America Executive Board, FAR Committee Chair and Service & Supply Chair.
- Brian A. Wolf has been appointed to Associated Builders and Contractors Institute's Board of Directors.
- Reginald M. Jones was named Chair of the Construction Division of the American Bar Association's Section of Public Contract Law.
- Hubert J. Bell, Jr., has been appointed by the American Bar Association (ABA) Board of Governors to represent it on the American Arbitration Association's National Construction Dispute Resolution Committee.
- Hubert J. Bell, Jr. and Eugene J. Heady were elected to become Fellows of the American Bar Foundation.
- Charles W. Surasky was named the National Utility Contractors Association's (NUCA) 2009 Associate Member of the Year. Charles is counsel for the Georgia Utility Contractors Association and an active member of the National Utility Contractors Association. He has served as a member of GUCA's board of directors and was GUCA's 2003-2004 Associate Member of the Year.
- Robert C. Chambers serves as General Counsel for the Georgia Highway Contractors Association (GHCA), as well as the Georgia Asphalt Pavement Association (GAPA).

---

HAPPY HOLIDAYS! SCH Supports Toys For Tots

---

Smith, Currie & Hancock is committed to being involved in the community and in construction industry organizations. Every year the firm has been one of the biggest contributors to the Georgia Branch, Associated General Contractors Young Leadership Program's Toys for Tots campaign. The Toys for Tots program collects new toys during October, November, and December each year and distributes those toys as Christmas gifts to needy children in the community. This past November

CONTINUED

Smith Currie's attorneys and staff held their first bake sale to raise money for Toys for Tots. The money raised was spent by volunteers from the firm on toys given to the campaign. 2009 was Smith Currie's most successful year ever raising money for Toys for Tots.